July 2007

Dear Friends,

Children always amaze me. They cry and then they laugh. They want to be loved and held, however the children at One Way Farm Children's Home are so afraid of touch. Then comes along a cat, dog, rabbit or guinea pig and they begin to touch again. To watch a child of whom you know has suffered so much abuse hold a cat and say "I love you baby, you love me?" This the beginning of healing. I had a young lady who was about to leave One Way Farm Children's Home. When I began to talk to her, she began to sob. "Please Ms. Condo I can't leave One Way Farm." I asked her "why", thinking it was us. With tears in her eyes she replied, "because I love Booboo (a black cat) and I can't abandon him like I was abandoned." The miracle had taken place, love was in place and at night among the stuffed toys, lay Booboo weighing in at 19 pounds.

She feeds him very well! And love and touch have bloomed, because you care.

Sponsor our Animal Program

*Our cats need more room to romp and play.
Help us build extra runs and an outside playground for them. Our population is growing. Please sponsor to have a cat neutered*

Our Craft room is full of fun things to do. However..... we are in need of a splashboard tiled behind the stove and over the sink. If you could help us out with this project please call Brenda at 513-829-5683.

Would you like to help the children do their LIFE BOOKS?
If you have time to volunteer, please call 513-829-4768

Share your craftiness with the children
